Advertising Information

Online North Dakota Water Directory

---

Audience

---

The North Dakota Water Directory is the premier resource for contact information for North Dakota water agencies and water organizations. The new online edition will reach members of the North Dakota Water Users Association, as well as irrigators, irrigation dealers and suppliers, members of the North Dakota Water Coalition, rural water systems serving 35,000 hook-ups, water resource districts, boards and staff of both the Garrison Diversion Conservancy District and Southwest Water Authority, Western Area Water Authority, commissioners and staff of the State Water Commission, North Dakota state legislators and congressional delegation offices in Washington, D.C., as well as state and federal agencies and other organizations associated with water in North Dakota.

Benefit

---

Through an online publication, we can provide a website link on your advertisement, which will drive more traffic to your business!
